COMPANY, LIMITED.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an EXTRAORDINARY MEETING of the above-named Company will be held at the COMPANY'S OFFICES, St George's

Building No. 6, Connaught Road, Victoria, on SATURDAY, 8th day of July, 1905,

at 11.30 in the Forenoon, when the subjoined resolution which was passed at a Meeting held on 21st June, 1905, will be submitted for confirmation as a Special

Resolution.

RESOLUTION.

That the Capital of the Company be increased to $50,000, by the creation of&lt;/

the 15th of February, 1656, and Oliver Cromwell ordered a public funeral in the Abbey, and made a grant towards it from the Treasury. He was a man who, in an age of political and religious strife, enjoyed the confidence of all parties, so lofty was his character, so wide his learning, so beautiful his spirit. The stone which has just been raised to his memory is due to the admiration of a modern scholar, Dr. Salmon, late Provost of Trinity College, Dublin. This recalls the fact, that Archbishop Usher's library is now at Trinity College—a gift of Charles II. to Dublin in the year after the Restoration.

The career of Gregory the Great, even before he became a monk, was so remarkable, that any really scholarly attempt to re-tell the story in the modern historical temper of the present investigation is sure of a welcome. This is the task which Mr. Holmes Dutton, the well-known Fellow of Lincoln, Oxford, has just completed. The book is in two volumes, and is entitled "Gregory the Great—His Place in History and Thought." He was elected to St. Peter's Chair by acclamation, and in spite of his own reluctance to accept the lonely splendour and responsibility of such a position. But the thirteen years of his pontificate amply justified such a choice; and the name Gregory I has borne in history for thirteen centuries has never been seriously challenged. It will be interesting to see how Mr. Dutton handles the one shadow on the reputation of so great a Pope—his detestation of the cruel, unscrupulous, after Maurice, Emperor of the East, had been lately done to death.

It was in the reign of Henry VIII. that "The Trinity House" received its charter, and for nearly four centuries it has pursued its beneficent work. Mr. Walter Mayo has just compiled from official papers a full account of this old corporation. The book, which Messrs. Smith, Elder & Co. publish almost immediately, apart from all that it will have to tell us of the control of light-houses round the coast, will show what the Trinity House has done in times of military alarm, like the war with Napoleon, in guarding the approach to London by way of the Thames. The volume will be enriched with portraits and facsimiles of historic documents.

Messrs. Chatto and Windus, with land-able enterprise, are about to publish, in six volumes, a uniform library edition of Mr. Swinburne's Tragedies. The first volume, which will be ready shortly, is to contain "The Queen Mother" and "Rosamond." A limited large paper edition is also announced.

Messrs. Dent, who have taken over "The Queen's Prime Ministers" series intend to complete it—and possibly to extend its scope—under the original Editor, Mr. Stuart J. Reid. A monograph on Lord Rosebery is to be added, as soon as possible.

Mr. Arthur Symonds, one of the few intimate friends of the late Ernest Dowson, has written a biographical sketch for "The Collected Poems of that clever but unhappy writer. Mr. John Lane is to publish the book, which, by way of frontispiece, is to have a portrait by Mr. Rothenstein. The cover is from a design by the late Aubrey Beardsley.

"The Candidate" is the title of an important political novel, by Mr. J. A. Alsholm, which Messrs. Harper are to publish shortly. It is a romance woven round the political adventures of a candidate for the tenancy of the White House, and rumour has it that it is founded on the actual career of a well-known public man in the United States.

MAIL STEAMER DEPARTURES.

The following table is a chronologically arranged list of mail steamer sailings to Europe, America, Canada, and Australia. Coast ports, Manila, and Japan are not given, for steamers are constantly sailing for those ports. All the American steamers call at Japan, and the majority of the Australian boats call at Manila, and in addition to those vessels, special steamers run there. The departure of every steamer is subject to alteration. The P. & O. mails usually reach London in about 28 days, and the French and German in about 28 or 30 days.
